With Me Shillelagh Under Me Arm

Bb// F// C//

//Sure I'm [Dm]tired of roaming 'round
And so I'm [C]gonna pack me grip,
And I'm [Dm]off to book me passage on
A mighty [C]powerful [Dm]ship.
I'll be [F]bound to send a telegram
The [Bb]day I reach the quay
To tell them in a [F]week or two
They'll <Bb> be <Bb>ex<F>pec<F>ting [C]me.

With me shi[F]llelagh under me arm
And a [Bb]twinkle in me [F] eye,
I'll be off to Tipperary in the [Dm]mor[C]ning
With me [F]shillelagh under me arm
And a [Bb]too-ra-loo-ra-[F]lie,
I'll be welcome in the [Dm] home that I was [C]born [F]in.

Me [C]mother's told the neighbour
That I'm [F]gonna settle down;
[G]Phil the Fluter's comin' out
To [C]play me round the town.
With me shil[F]llelagh under me arm
And a [Bb]twinkle in me [F] eye
I'll be [Bb]off to Tippe[F]rary in the [C]morn[F]in'. [F]

Sure I'm [Dm]feeling mighty fine,
And I've got [C]bags of money, too,
And I [Dm]mean to give the folks at home
A proper [C]Irish [Dm]do.
There'll be [F]such a welcome waiting for ye

[Bb]All along the mat,
 I can just imagine [F]people saying
 <Bb>"Ach, <Bb>how <F>are <F>ye, [C]Pat?"

With me shi[F]lilagh under me arm
 And a [Bb]twinkle in me [F] eye,
 I'll be off to Tipperary in the [Dm]mor[C]ning
 With me [F]shillelagh under me arm
 And a [Bb]too-ra-loo-ra-[F]lie,
 I'll be welcome in the [Dm] home that I was [C]born [F]in.
